

PART A — MODULE 1 QUESTIONS

RW1-M1-001

Prompt:

In 1910, architect Marion Mahony Griffin helped create presentation drawings for a major design competition in Australia. Her delicate ink-and-watercolor images made the proposed city plan easier for judges to understand. Although the plan was submitted under Walter Burley Griffin's name, scholars now recognize Mahony Griffin's drawings as _____ to the proposal's success.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word or phrase?

- A) accidental
- B) essential
- C) ordinary
- D) unrelated

RW1-M1-002

Prompt:

Urban planners have long known that trees can make city streets more pleasant for pedestrians. Recent studies add that trees can also reduce surface temperatures by shading pavement and releasing water vapor through their leaves. These benefits are especially important in neighborhoods with large areas of asphalt, where summer heat can become intense.

Question:

Which choice best states the main idea of the text?

- A) Trees can help reduce heat in cities, especially in heavily paved neighborhoods.
- B) Urban planners usually plant trees only to improve the appearance of streets.
- C) Asphalt is the only cause of high summer temperatures in cities.
- D) Pedestrians prefer neighborhoods that have fewer shaded areas.

RW1-M1-003

Prompt:

A student collected data on weekly visits to a community library.

Week | Number of visits

- 1 | 420
- 2 | 455
- 3 | 510
- 4 | 505

Question:

Which choice best describes the data in the table?

- A) Library visits increased from week 1 to week 3, then decreased slightly in week 4.
- B) Library visits decreased steadily from week 1 through week 4.
- C) Library visits stayed the same during weeks 3 and 4.
- D) Library visits were highest in week 2.

RW1-M1-004

Prompt:

Maya had practiced the violin piece dozens of times, but as she waited backstage, she still worried about the fast section near the end. When her name was called, she took a deep breath and walked toward the lights. Once she began playing, however, her fingers seemed to remember what her mind had been questioning.

Question:

Which choice best describes what happens in the text?

- A) Maya forgets the piece as soon as she begins performing.
- B) Maya is nervous before performing but gains confidence as she plays.
- C) Maya refuses to play because she has not practiced enough.
- D) Maya decides that the fast section should be removed from the piece.

RW1-M1-005

Prompt:

A historian writing about early weather forecasting explains that many nineteenth-century forecasts depended on information sent by telegraph. Before telegraph networks expanded, reports of storms often arrived after the storms had already passed. With faster communication, however, weather observers could share data quickly enough for forecasters to warn towns in advance.

Question:

What is the main function of the sentence “Before telegraph networks expanded, reports of storms often arrived after the storms had already passed”?

- A) It shows why faster communication improved weather forecasting.
- B) It argues that nineteenth-century storms were more dangerous than modern storms.
- C) It introduces a disagreement among weather observers.
- D) It explains how telegraphs were built.

RW1-M1-006

Prompt:

Many students assume that sleep matters only the night before a test. _____ researchers have found that getting enough sleep over several nights helps the brain store information learned during study sessions.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

- A) For example,
- B) Instead,
- C) However,
- D) Therefore,

RW1-M1-007

Prompt:

The collection of fossils from the riverbank _____ scientists a clearer picture of the region’s ancient ecosystem.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) give
- B) giving
- C) gives
- D) have given

RW1-M1-008

Prompt:

The city’s newest mural was painted by Lena Ortiz _____ a local artist known for using bright colors and geometric patterns.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) Ortiz

- B) Ortiz,
- C) Ortiz;
- D) Ortiz:

RW1-M1-009

Prompt:

After the debate team finished _____ final practice, the coach reminded the students to speak slowly and clearly.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) its
- B) their
- C) them
- D) they're

RW1-M1-010

Prompt:

While researching a topic, a student has taken the following notes:

- The glass frog is found in parts of Central and South America.
- Some glass frogs have translucent skin on their undersides.
- This skin allows observers to see some internal organs.
- Scientists study glass frogs to better understand camouflage and development.
- Glass frogs often live near streams in tropical forests.

The student wants to emphasize a distinctive physical feature of glass frogs. Which choice most effectively uses relevant information from the notes to accomplish this goal?

- A) Glass frogs often live near streams in tropical forests in Central and South America.
- B) Some glass frogs have translucent undersides, a feature that lets observers see some of their internal organs.
- C) Scientists study glass frogs to learn more about development and camouflage.
- D) The glass frog is one of many animals found in tropical forest ecosystems.

RW1-M1-011

Prompt:

The museum's new audio guide is easy to use. _____ its printed map is confusing, with several galleries labeled in the wrong order.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

- A) Similarly,
- B) In contrast,
- C) For this reason,
- D) In addition,

RW1-M1-012

Prompt:

The following text is from a draft of a student's essay.

(1) Clara Barton is best known for founding the American Red Cross. (2) Before that, she worked as a teacher and later as a clerk in the U.S. Patent Office. (3) During the Civil War, she organized supplies for wounded soldiers. (4) Her wartime service helped shape her later humanitarian work.

Question:

To make the paragraph most logical, sentence 2 should be placed

- A) where it is now.
- B) after sentence 3.
- C) after sentence 4.
- D) before sentence 1.

RW1-M1-013

Prompt:

Last year, the robotics club _____ a small machine that could sort plastic bottles from aluminum cans.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) builds
- B) built
- C) will build
- D) building

RW1-M1-014

Prompt:

_____ by several volunteers, the garden's new benches were installed before the spring festival.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) Painted
- B) Painting
- C) To paint
- D) Paint

RW1-M1-015

Prompt:

The trail was difficult to follow _____ the signs had faded after years of rain and sun.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) follow, the signs
- B) follow the signs
- C) follow because the signs
- D) follow, because, the signs

RW1-M1-016

Prompt:

Marine biologists sometimes attach small tracking devices to sea turtles. The devices record where the turtles travel, allowing researchers to _____ information about migration routes that would otherwise be difficult to observe.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) gather
- B) ignore
- C) borrow
- D) replace

RW1-M1-017

Prompt:

In many cities, food trucks have become an important part of local dining. Because food trucks usually require less space and lower start-up costs than restaurants, they can give new chefs a way to test ideas before opening permanent businesses. They also allow customers to try a wide variety of foods in different neighborhoods.

Question:

Which choice best states the main idea of the text?

- A) Food trucks can benefit both new chefs and customers.
- B) Food trucks should replace permanent restaurants in cities.
- C) Customers usually prefer restaurants with large dining rooms.
- D) Starting a food truck is always more expensive than opening a restaurant.

RW1-M1-018

Prompt:

Researchers studying honeybees found that bees can communicate the location of food through a “waggle dance.” The direction and length of the dance give other bees information about where to fly. This behavior helps the colony collect food more efficiently.

Question:

According to the text, what information can honeybees share through the waggle dance?

- A) The location of food
- B) The age of the queen bee
- C) The temperature inside the hive
- D) The number of flowers in a field

RW1-M1-019

Prompt:

A student is revising the following sentence.

The town opened a new bike path, and it connects the school, the library, and the park.

Question:

Which choice best combines the sentences to make the relationship between the ideas clear and concise?

- A) The town opened a new bike path that connects the school, the library, and the park.
- B) The town opened a new bike path, it connects the school, the library, and the park.
- C) The town opened a new bike path and connecting the school, the library, and the park.
- D) The town opened a new bike path because the school, the library, and the park.

RW1-M1-020

Prompt:

While researching a topic, a student has taken the following notes:

- Elizabeth Catlett was an artist born in Washington, DC, in 1915.
- She created sculptures and prints.
- Much of her work portrays African American and Mexican people.
- Catlett used art to explore themes of dignity, labor, and social justice.
- She lived and worked in both the United States and Mexico.

The student wants to introduce Catlett to an audience unfamiliar with her. Which choice most effectively uses relevant information from the notes?

- A) Elizabeth Catlett, born in Washington, DC, in 1915, was an artist whose sculptures and prints often explored dignity, labor, and social justice.
- B) Elizabeth Catlett lived in the United States and Mexico, and many other artists have also worked in more than one country.
- C) Some of Elizabeth Catlett's sculptures are better known than some of her prints.
- D) Social justice has been an important theme for many artists in the twentieth century.

RW1-M1-021

Prompt:

A school garden club recorded the number of tomato plants that produced fruit.

Variety | Plants that produced fruit out of 20

Roma | 16

Cherry | 18

Beefsteak | 12

Pear | 15

Question:

Which choice is supported by the data in the table?

- A) Cherry tomato plants had the highest number of fruit-producing plants.
- B) Beefsteak tomato plants had the highest number of fruit-producing plants.
- C) Roma and Pear tomato plants had the same number of fruit-producing plants.
- D) No variety had more than 15 fruit-producing plants.

RW1-M1-022

Prompt:

In an essay about community theater, a student writes that small theaters often rely on volunteers. The student then adds, "At one theater in Ohio, volunteers built sets, sold tickets, and even repaired costumes."

Question:

What is the most likely purpose of the quoted sentence?

- A) To give a specific example of the work volunteers do
- B) To argue that professional actors should not perform in small theaters
- C) To explain why theaters in Ohio are larger than theaters elsewhere
- D) To introduce a new topic about costume design schools

RW1-M1-023

Prompt:

The kakapo, _____ is a flightless parrot from New Zealand, is active mostly at night.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) which
- B) which,
- C) that
- D) that,

RW1-M1-024

Prompt:

The workshop teaches students how to plan a project, how to manage their time, and _____ their results clearly.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) presenting
- B) to present
- C) presentation of
- D) presented

RW1-M1-025

Prompt:

The scientist's first explanation of the results was too technical for a general audience, so she revised it to make the main point more _____.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) visible
- B) complicated
- C) famous
- D) uncertain

RW1-M1-026

Prompt:

A student wants to begin an essay about the benefits of public parks. Which choice would be the most effective opening sentence for the essay?

- A) Public parks provide communities with places to exercise, relax, and gather.
- B) The park near my house has three benches and a drinking fountain.
- C) Some parks are larger than others, depending on the city.
- D) A park is a place that usually has grass, paths, or trees.

RW1-M1-027

Prompt:

The school installed new water-bottle filling stations throughout the building. _____ students began using fewer disposable plastic bottles during the day.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

- A) As a result,
- B) For example,
- C) Nevertheless,
- D) Earlier,

PART B — MODULE 2 QUESTIONS

RW1-M2-001

Prompt:

When composer Florence Price's Symphony No. 1 premiered in 1933, some critics treated the work as an unusual event because Price was a Black woman writing in a field dominated by white men. More recent scholars, however, have argued that focusing only on the "firsts" associated with Price can _____ the musical complexity of her work, including her creative use of spirituals and European symphonic forms.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) obscure
- B) duplicate

- C) simplify
- D) announce

RW1-M2-002

Prompt:

Textile conservators sometimes face a difficult choice when restoring old garments. Cleaning can reveal original colors and patterns, but aggressive cleaning can also damage fragile fibers. For this reason, conservators often test small hidden areas first and document each step carefully before treating the whole garment.

Question:

Which choice best states the main idea of the text?

- A) Textile conservators must balance the benefits of cleaning with the risk of damaging delicate materials.
- B) Textile conservators usually avoid documenting their restoration work until a garment is fully cleaned.
- C) Old garments cannot reveal useful information about the people who made or wore them.
- D) Aggressive cleaning is the only reliable way to restore the original colors of old textiles.

RW1-M2-003

Prompt:

Some desert plants open tiny pores in their leaves only at night. During the day, keeping these pores closed helps the plants reduce water loss in the heat. At night, the plants can take in carbon dioxide while temperatures are lower and the air is often less dry.

Question:

Which choice is the best inference from the text?

- A) Opening leaf pores at night helps some desert plants survive dry conditions.
- B) Desert plants grow faster than plants in wetter environments.
- C) Desert plants do not need carbon dioxide to survive.
- D) Opening leaf pores during the day prevents water from leaving a plant.

RW1-M2-004

Prompt:

A student's draft about the poet Gwendolyn Brooks includes the following sentences.

Brooks often wrote about everyday life in Chicago neighborhoods. This focus on ordinary experiences did not make her poetry simple; rather, it allowed her to explore complex questions about identity, community, and social change.

Question:

What is the main function of the second sentence in the text?

- A) It corrects a possible misunderstanding about Brooks's focus on everyday life.
- B) It lists the titles of Brooks's most famous poems.
- C) It argues that Brooks should have written about different neighborhoods.
- D) It explains why Brooks stopped writing poetry.

RW1-M2-005

Prompt:

A researcher recorded average wait times for buses on four routes.

Route | Average wait time before schedule change | Average wait time after schedule change

A | 14 minutes | 10 minutes

- B | 11 minutes | 12 minutes
- C | 18 minutes | 13 minutes
- D | 9 minutes | 9 minutes

Question:

Which choice best describes the data?

- A) Routes A and C had shorter average wait times after the schedule change, while Route B had a longer average wait time.
- B) All four routes had shorter average wait times after the schedule change.
- C) Route D had the greatest decrease in average wait time after the schedule change.
- D) Route B and Route C had the same average wait time after the schedule change.

RW1-M2-006

Prompt:

The new exhibit features rare photographs from the 1920s. _____ the museum chose not to display some of the most delicate prints, which could be damaged by prolonged exposure to light.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

- A) Likewise,
- B) However,
- C) Therefore,
- D) For instance,

RW1-M2-007

Prompt:

The student's presentation focused on three ancient writing materials _____ clay tablets, papyrus, and parchment.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) materials
- B) materials:
- C) materials,
- D) materials;

RW1-M2-008

Prompt:

Walking along the shoreline after the storm, _____.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) shells and bits of driftwood covered the sand
- B) the sand was covered with shells and bits of driftwood
- C) we found shells and bits of driftwood scattered across the sand
- D) there were shells and bits of driftwood scattered across the sand

RW1-M2-009

Prompt:

The two engineers reviewed the bridge design with the city planner, and _____ agreed that the support beams needed further testing.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English and avoids ambiguity?

- A) they
- B) she
- C) the engineers
- D) it

RW1-M2-010

Prompt:

By the time the school newspaper printed its interview with the mayor, the city council _____ the proposal for a new recreation center.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) approves
- B) has approved
- C) had approved
- D) approving

RW1-M2-011

Prompt:

While researching a topic, a student has taken the following notes:

- Vera Rubin was an astronomer who studied how galaxies rotate.
- In the 1970s, Rubin and Kent Ford observed that stars at the outer edges of galaxies moved faster than expected.
- Their observations supported the idea that galaxies contain large amounts of unseen mass.
- This unseen mass is now commonly called dark matter.
- Rubin's work helped change scientists' understanding of the universe.

The student wants to explain the significance of Rubin and Ford's observations. Which choice most effectively uses relevant information from the notes?

- A) Vera Rubin was an astronomer whose work in the 1970s included studying how galaxies rotate.
- B) By showing that outer stars in galaxies moved faster than expected, Rubin and Ford's observations supported the idea of dark matter.
- C) Kent Ford worked with Vera Rubin, and both scientists studied galaxies during the 1970s.
- D) Dark matter is a term scientists now use for unseen mass in galaxies.

RW1-M2-012

Prompt:

A student is revising an essay about school composting programs and wants to add a sentence that explains why some programs fail. Which choice best accomplishes this goal?

- A) Composting programs can reduce the amount of food waste that schools send to landfills.
- B) Some schools place compost bins in cafeterias, kitchens, and outdoor garden areas.
- C) Programs may struggle when students and staff are not clearly taught which materials can be composted.
- D) Several cities have encouraged schools to start composting programs in recent years.

RW1-M2-013

Prompt:

The following text is from a draft of a student's essay.

(1) Salt marshes are coastal wetlands that flood and drain with the tides. (2) These wetlands provide habitat for many birds, fish, and invertebrates. (3) Some communities are restoring damaged salt marshes by removing barriers to tidal flow. (4) Restored marshes can also help reduce flooding by absorbing storm surge.

Question:

Where should the following sentence be placed to best support the logical flow of the paragraph?

They can also protect nearby communities from severe weather.

- A) After sentence 1
- B) After sentence 2
- C) After sentence 3
- D) After sentence 4

RW1-M2-014

Prompt:

Although the author's journal entries from the expedition are brief, they are not _____; even a few lines about weather, supplies, and travel conditions can help historians reconstruct the journey.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) useless
- B) private
- C) recent
- D) handwritten

RW1-M2-015

Prompt:

In 2021, researchers analyzed the remains of meals preserved on ancient ceramic vessels. They found evidence of spices that were not grown locally, suggesting that the people who used the vessels may have participated in long-distance trade networks.

Question:

Which choice best describes the relationship between the evidence and the researchers' conclusion?

- A) The evidence suggests that nonlocal spices were present, which supports the conclusion that trade may have occurred.
- B) The evidence proves that every ancient community used the same spices.
- C) The evidence shows that ceramic vessels were never used for cooking local foods.
- D) The evidence contradicts the conclusion because spices cannot be preserved on ceramics.

RW1-M2-016

Prompt:

The documentary includes interviews with former factory workers _____ it also features archival footage of the machines they operated.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) workers, it
- B) workers and
- C) workers; and
- D) workers, and

RW1-M2-017

Prompt:

A biologist tested whether a certain species of moss grows better on limestone or sandstone. In a greenhouse, she placed equal amounts of moss on both rock types and kept light and water conditions the same. After six weeks, the moss on limestone had spread over a larger area than the moss on sandstone.

Question:

Which conclusion is best supported by the text?

- A) Under the conditions of the experiment, the moss grew better on limestone than on sandstone.
- B) Moss can grow only in greenhouse environments.
- C) Light and water conditions have no effect on moss growth.
- D) Sandstone prevents all plant life from growing.

RW1-M2-018

Prompt:

The writer first describes a problem faced by local farmers: heavy rains often wash soil from sloped fields. _____ she explains a solution: planting strips of native grass that slow runoff and hold soil in place.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

- A) In the same way,
- B) Next,
- C) Nevertheless,
- D) By contrast,

RW1-M2-019

Prompt:

The number of students who participate in the school's peer tutoring program _____ steadily since the program began three years ago.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) have grown
- B) grow
- C) has grown
- D) are growing

RW1-M2-020

Prompt:

The _____ wings are covered with tiny scales that reflect light, creating colors that can appear to change as the insect moves.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) butterflies'
- B) butterflies
- C) butterfly's
- D) butterflies's

RW1-M2-021

Prompt:

While researching a topic, a student has taken the following notes:

- The Harlem Renaissance was a cultural movement in the 1920s and 1930s.
- Writers, musicians, and artists contributed to the movement.
- Zora Neale Hurston collected African American folklore and wrote fiction.
- Aaron Douglas created paintings and murals with bold shapes and African-inspired imagery.

- Duke Ellington became known for jazz compositions and performances.

The student wants to give examples of different types of artists associated with the Harlem Renaissance. Which choice most effectively uses relevant information from the notes?

- A) The Harlem Renaissance took place mainly during the 1920s and 1930s.
- B) The Harlem Renaissance included many creative figures, such as writer Zora Neale Hurston, visual artist Aaron Douglas, and musician Duke Ellington.
- C) Zora Neale Hurston collected folklore, and folklore can influence many different kinds of literature.
- D) Aaron Douglas used bold shapes in paintings and murals that are still studied today.

RW1-M2-022

Prompt:

A student is revising the following sentence.

The river cleanup removed hundreds of pounds of trash, and volunteers also recorded the types of waste they found.

The student wants to emphasize that the project produced both environmental and scientific benefits. Which choice best revises the sentence to accomplish this goal?

- A) The river cleanup removed hundreds of pounds of trash while also generating useful data about the types of waste found.
- B) The river cleanup happened near the river, where volunteers found trash and recorded it.
- C) Hundreds of pounds of trash were removed by volunteers, and the volunteers worked near the river.
- D) Volunteers removed trash, which is something that many river cleanup projects try to do.

RW1-M2-023

Prompt:

Whenever the old clock in the train station chimed, Mr. Alvarez looked up from his newspaper, as though the sound had called his name. He had taken the same train for thirty years, but lately each departure felt less like a routine and more like a small farewell.

Question:

Which choice best describes what the text suggests about Mr. Alvarez?

- A) He has begun to feel emotionally affected by a familiar daily experience.
- B) He is angry that the train station clock is no longer accurate.
- C) He wants to stop reading newspapers during his commute.
- D) He has recently started taking the train for the first time.

RW1-M2-024

Prompt:

To reduce glare in the classroom, the teacher lowered the window shades, _____ the projector image easier to see.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) makes
- B) making
- C) made
- D) and making

RW1-M2-025

Prompt:

Archaeologists often study broken pottery because the pieces can _____ clues about trade, diet, and daily life, even when complete objects are rare.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) provide
- B) conceal
- C) dismiss
- D) invent

RW1-M2-026

Prompt:

The research team documented several features of the cave: mineral deposits, ancient tool marks, and _____.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) animal bones preserved in clay
- B) clay preserved animal bones
- C) animal bones were preserved in clay
- D) preserving animal bones in clay

RW1-M2-027

Prompt:

While researching a topic, a student has taken the following notes:

- Mangrove forests grow along tropical and subtropical coastlines.
- Their tangled roots can slow waves and trap sediment.
- Young fish and crustaceans often shelter among mangrove roots.
- Mangroves can store large amounts of carbon in their soils.
- Some coastal communities restore mangrove forests to help reduce storm damage.

The student wants to emphasize two ecological benefits of mangrove forests. Which choice most effectively uses relevant information from the notes?

- A) Mangrove forests grow along coastlines in tropical and subtropical regions.
- B) Because their roots can shelter young marine animals and their soils can store carbon, mangrove forests provide important ecological benefits.
- C) Some coastal communities restore mangrove forests because storms can damage coastlines.
- D) Mangrove forests have tangled roots that can slow waves and trap sediment near shore.

PART C — MODULE 1 ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

RW1-M1-001 — Correct: essential — Explanation: The text says Mahony Griffin’s drawings made the proposal easier to understand and are now recognized as important to its success, so “essential” is the most precise choice.

RW1-M1-002 — Correct: Trees can help reduce heat in cities, especially in heavily paved neighborhoods. — Explanation: The passage explains that trees cool city streets through shade and water vapor, especially where asphalt creates intense heat.

RW1-M1-003 — Correct: Library visits increased from week 1 to week 3, then decreased slightly in week 4. — Explanation: The data rise from 420 to 455 to 510, then drop slightly to 505.

RW1-M1-004 — Correct: Maya is nervous before performing but gains confidence as she plays. —

Explanation: Maya worries before going onstage, but once she begins, her fingers remember the piece.

RW1-M1-005 — Correct: It shows why faster communication improved weather forecasting. — Explanation: The sentence explains the problem before telegraphs expanded: storm reports arrived too late to be useful.

RW1-M1-006 — Correct: However, — Explanation: The second sentence contrasts the common assumption with researchers' finding that sleep over several nights matters.

RW1-M1-007 — Correct: gives — Explanation: The singular subject "collection" requires the singular verb "gives."

RW1-M1-008 — Correct: Ortiz, — Explanation: The phrase "a local artist known for using bright colors and geometric patterns" is a nonessential appositive and should be set off with a comma.

RW1-M1-009 — Correct: its — Explanation: The singular collective noun "team" takes the singular possessive pronoun "its."

RW1-M1-010 — Correct: Some glass frogs have translucent undersides, a feature that lets observers see some of their internal organs. — Explanation: This choice emphasizes the distinctive physical feature and its effect.

RW1-M1-011 — Correct: In contrast, — Explanation: The audio guide is easy to use, but the printed map is confusing, so a contrast transition is needed.

RW1-M1-012 — Correct: where it is now. — Explanation: Sentence 2 gives background about Barton's early work before the paragraph moves to her Civil War service.

RW1-M1-013 — Correct: built — Explanation: "Last year" indicates past tense, so "built" is correct.

RW1-M1-014 — Correct: Painted — Explanation: "Painted by several volunteers" correctly modifies "benches."

RW1-M1-015 — Correct: follow because the signs — Explanation: The sentence needs "because" to connect the reason the trail was difficult to follow.

RW1-M1-016 — Correct: gather — Explanation: The tracking devices let researchers collect information about migration routes, so "gather" is most precise.

RW1-M1-017 — Correct: Food trucks can benefit both new chefs and customers. — Explanation: The text explains that food trucks help chefs test ideas and let customers try varied foods.

RW1-M1-018 — Correct: The location of food — Explanation: The passage says the direction and length of the waggle dance tell other bees where to fly for food.

RW1-M1-019 — Correct: The town opened a new bike path that connects the school, the library, and the park. — Explanation: This revision clearly and concisely shows that the bike path connects the three locations.

RW1-M1-020 — Correct: Elizabeth Catlett, born in Washington, DC, in 1915, was an artist whose sculptures and prints often explored dignity, labor, and social justice. — Explanation: This choice introduces Catlett and summarizes key information about her work.

RW1-M1-021 — Correct: Cherry tomato plants had the highest number of fruit-producing plants. — Explanation: Cherry had 18 fruit-producing plants, more than Roma, Beefsteak, or Pear.

RW1-M1-022 — Correct: To give a specific example of the work volunteers do — Explanation: The quoted sentence lists tasks volunteers performed at one theater.

RW1-M1-023 — Correct: which — Explanation: "Which" correctly introduces a nonessential clause about the kakapo after the comma.

RW1-M1-024 — Correct: to present — Explanation: The phrase completes the parallel structure: "how to plan," "how to manage," and "to present."

RW1-M1-025 — Correct: visible — Explanation: The scientist revised the explanation for a general audience, so she made the main point clearer, or more "visible."

RW1-M1-026 — Correct: Public parks provide communities with places to exercise, relax, and gather. — Explanation: This sentence clearly introduces the essay's broad focus on the benefits of public parks.

RW1-M1-027 — Correct: As a result, — Explanation: The decrease in disposable bottle use is an effect of installing filling stations.

PART D — MODULE 2 ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

RW1-M2-001 — Correct: obscure — Explanation: The text suggests that focusing only on Price's "firsts" can hide or distract from the complexity of her music.

RW1-M2-002 — Correct: Textile conservators must balance the benefits of cleaning with the risk of damaging delicate materials. — Explanation: The passage centers on the careful decisions conservators make when cleaning fragile garments.

RW1-M2-003 — Correct: Opening leaf pores at night helps some desert plants survive dry conditions. — Explanation: The text explains that this behavior lets plants take in carbon dioxide while reducing water loss.

RW1-M2-004 — Correct: It corrects a possible misunderstanding about Brooks's focus on everyday life. — Explanation: The sentence clarifies that writing about ordinary experiences allowed Brooks to explore complex themes.

RW1-M2-005 — Correct: Routes A and C had shorter average wait times after the schedule change, while Route B had a longer average wait time. — Explanation: Route A decreased from 14 to 10, Route C decreased from 18 to 13, and Route B increased from 11 to 12.

RW1-M2-006 — Correct: However, — Explanation: The second sentence contrasts the exhibit's rare photographs with the museum's decision not to display some delicate prints.

RW1-M2-007 — Correct: materials: — Explanation: A colon correctly introduces the list of three writing materials.

RW1-M2-008 — Correct: we found shells and bits of driftwood scattered across the sand — Explanation: The introductory modifier "Walking along the shoreline after the storm" must logically describe "we."

RW1-M2-009 — Correct: the engineers — Explanation: Repeating "the engineers" avoids ambiguity about whether "they" refers to the engineers and planner or only the engineers.

RW1-M2-010 — Correct: had approved — Explanation: The past perfect tense correctly shows that the approval occurred before the newspaper printed the interview.

RW1-M2-011 — Correct: By showing that outer stars in galaxies moved faster than expected, Rubin and Ford's observations supported the idea of dark matter. — Explanation: This choice explains the significance of the observations by connecting them to support for dark matter.

RW1-M2-012 — Correct: Programs may struggle when students and staff are not clearly taught which materials can be composted. — Explanation: This sentence directly explains a reason some composting programs fail.

RW1-M2-013 — Correct: After sentence 2 — Explanation: The added sentence introduces the idea of community protection, which sentence 4 develops with the example of reducing flooding.

RW1-M2-014 — Correct: useless — Explanation: The phrase "even a few lines" can help historians shows that the brief entries are not useless.

RW1-M2-015 — Correct: The evidence suggests that nonlocal spices were present, which supports the conclusion that trade may have occurred. — Explanation: The conclusion is based on evidence of spices that were not grown locally.

RW1-M2-016 — Correct: workers, and — Explanation: A comma plus "and" correctly joins the two independent clauses.

RW1-M2-017 — Correct: Under the conditions of the experiment, the moss grew better on limestone than on sandstone. — Explanation: The experiment controlled light and water, and the moss spread more on limestone after six weeks.

RW1-M2-018 — Correct: Next, — Explanation: The writer first describes a problem and then moves to a solution, so "Next" is logical.

RW1-M2-019 — Correct: has grown — Explanation: The singular subject "number" takes the singular verb phrase “has grown.”

RW1-M2-020 — Correct: butterfly’s — Explanation: The sentence refers to one butterfly’s wings, so the singular possessive “butterfly’s” is correct.

RW1-M2-021 — Correct: The Harlem Renaissance included many creative figures, such as writer Zora Neale Hurston, visual artist Aaron Douglas, and musician Duke Ellington. — Explanation: This choice gives examples from different artistic fields associated with the Harlem Renaissance.

RW1-M2-022 — Correct: The river cleanup removed hundreds of pounds of trash while also generating useful data about the types of waste found. — Explanation: This revision emphasizes both the environmental benefit and the data-gathering benefit.

RW1-M2-023 — Correct: He has begun to feel emotionally affected by a familiar daily experience. — Explanation: The text says each departure now feels like “a small farewell,” suggesting emotional change.

RW1-M2-024 — Correct: making — Explanation: The participle “making” correctly shows the result of lowering the shades.

RW1-M2-025 — Correct: provide — Explanation: Broken pottery pieces can give or supply clues about trade, diet, and daily life.

RW1-M2-026 — Correct: animal bones preserved in clay — Explanation: This choice keeps the list grammatically parallel: “mineral deposits, ancient tool marks, and animal bones preserved in clay.”

RW1-M2-027 — Correct: Because their roots can shelter young marine animals and their soils can store carbon, mangrove forests provide important ecological benefits. — Explanation: This choice emphasizes two ecological benefits: providing shelter and storing carbon.