

PART A — MODULE 1 QUESTIONS

RW4-M1-001

Prompt:

In the 1920s and 1930s, sculptor Augusta Savage created portraits that captured the strength and individuality of her subjects. She also taught younger artists and helped open opportunities for Black artists in New York. Because of both her artwork and her support for others, Savage is considered a _____ figure in twentieth-century American art.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) minor
- B) central
- C) hidden
- D) accidental

RW4-M1-002

Prompt:

Tactile paving is made of raised bumps or bars on sidewalks and train platforms. People who are blind or have low vision can feel these patterns with a cane or underfoot. The patterns can warn them that they are near a street crossing, platform edge, or other area that requires caution.

Question:

Which choice best states the main idea of the text?

- A) Tactile paving helps people with limited vision move through public spaces more safely.
- B) Tactile paving is used mainly to decorate sidewalks and train platforms.
- C) People with low vision avoid public spaces that include street crossings.
- D) Raised patterns on sidewalks are useful only during bad weather.

RW4-M1-003

Prompt:

A student recorded the number of students who signed up for four after-school clubs.

Club | Students signed up

Chess | 22

Gardening | 18

Coding | 31

Drama | 27

Question:

Which choice is supported by the data in the table?

- A) The Coding Club had the most students sign up.
- B) The Gardening Club had more students sign up than the Drama Club.
- C) The Chess Club and Drama Club had the same number of students sign up.
- D) No club had more than 27 students sign up.

RW4-M1-004

Prompt:

When Samira first joined the chess club, she moved her pieces quickly, hoping speed would make her seem confident. After losing several games, she began pausing before each move and imagining what her opponent might do next. Soon, her games lasted longer, and she noticed mistakes before making them.

Question:

Which choice best describes what happens in the text?

- A) Samira improves by slowing down and thinking ahead.
- B) Samira leaves the chess club because she dislikes competition.
- C) Samira wins every game by moving as quickly as possible.
- D) Samira teaches her opponent how to play chess.

RW4-M1-005

Prompt:

In a text about early bookshops, a historian notes that signs outside shops often displayed symbols such as birds, crowns, or stars. The historian adds, “These signs were not merely decorative; they helped customers find specific shops at a time when many streets did not yet have numbered addresses.”

Question:

What is the main function of the quoted sentence?

- A) It explains a practical reason that symbols appeared on bookshop signs.
- B) It argues that numbered street addresses were more confusing than shop signs.
- C) It lists the most expensive decorations used by early bookshops.
- D) It shows that customers avoided shops with signs.

RW4-M1-006

Prompt:

The science fair included projects on plant growth, renewable energy, and water quality. _____ several students presented inventions designed to solve everyday problems.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

- A) Additionally,
- B) Nevertheless,
- C) Instead,
- D) Earlier,

RW4-M1-007

Prompt:

The list of materials for the experiment _____ on the first page of the lab handout.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) appear
- B) appears
- C) appearing
- D) have appeared

RW4-M1-008

Prompt:

The article describes the Andean condor, _____ one of the largest flying birds in the world.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) condor
- B) condor,
- C) condor;
- D) condor:

RW4-M1-009

Prompt:

Before the match began, the players checked _____ equipment and stretched on the field.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) their
- B) them
- C) they
- D) theirs

RW4-M1-010

Prompt:

While researching a topic, a student has taken the following notes:

- Annie Easley was a mathematician and computer scientist.
- She worked at NASA and its predecessor agency.
- Easley wrote computer code for energy and rocket systems.
- She also encouraged students, especially women and minorities, to study STEM fields.
- Her career lasted more than three decades.

The student wants to introduce Easley and her professional field. Which choice most effectively uses relevant information from the notes?

- A) Annie Easley, a mathematician and computer scientist, wrote code for energy and rocket systems while working at NASA and its predecessor agency.
- B) Annie Easley encouraged students to study STEM fields, and many students are interested in science.
- C) NASA and its predecessor agency employed many people in different technical fields.
- D) Annie Easley's career lasted more than three decades, which is a long time.

RW4-M1-011

Prompt:

The new language-learning app offers short daily lessons and clear pronunciation examples. _____ it requires users to pay for many advanced features.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

- A) However,
- B) For example,
- C) Similarly,
- D) As a result,

RW4-M1-012

Prompt:

The following text is from a draft of a student's essay.

(1) Emergency kits can help families prepare for power outages or severe weather. (2) A basic kit might include water, flashlights, batteries, and first-aid supplies. (3) Families should also check the kit regularly to replace expired items. (4) With careful planning, an emergency kit can be ready when it is needed.

Question:

To make the paragraph most logical, sentence 3 should be placed

- A) where it is now.
- B) before sentence 1.
- C) after sentence 4.
- D) between sentence 1 and sentence 2.

RW4-M1-013

Prompt:

Last week, the environmental club _____ posters about reducing food waste.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) creates
- B) created
- C) will create
- D) creating

RW4-M1-014

Prompt:

_____ near the entrance of the park, the information board shows a map of the trails.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) Located
- B) Locating
- C) To locate
- D) Locate

RW4-M1-015

Prompt:

The café closed early _____ the water main on the street was being repaired.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) early, the water
- B) early because the water
- C) early; because the water
- D) early, because, the water

RW4-M1-016

Prompt:

To better understand how students use the library, the librarian reviewed checkout records and seating counts. By studying this information together, she hoped to _____ trends in how the space was being used.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) analyze
- B) hide
- C) borrow
- D) forget

RW4-M1-017

Prompt:

Some schools have started lending calculators, art supplies, and sports equipment to students who need them. These lending programs can help students participate in class activities without requiring families to purchase items that may be used only occasionally.

Question:

Which choice best states the main idea of the text?

- A) School lending programs can make supplies and equipment more accessible to students.
- B) Students should buy every item they might need for school activities.
- C) Calculators are more important than art supplies or sports equipment.
- D) Lending programs are useful only for students who play sports.

RW4-M1-018

Prompt:

Ornithologists studying owls note that many owl species have soft-edged wing feathers. These feathers reduce noise as the birds fly, making it easier for them to approach prey quietly at night.

Question:

According to the text, how do soft-edged wing feathers help many owls?

- A) They allow owls to fly more quietly.
- B) They help owls build stronger nests.
- C) They make owls active only during the day.
- D) They prevent owls from needing food.

RW4-M1-019

Prompt:

A student is revising the following sentence.

The school started a morning announcements team, and students can use it to share news, celebrate achievements, and remind classmates about events.

Question:

Which choice best combines the ideas clearly and concisely?

- A) The school started a morning announcements team that lets students share news, celebrate achievements, and remind classmates about events.
- B) The school started a morning announcements team, students can use it to share news, celebrate achievements, and remind classmates about events.
- C) The school started a morning announcements team and sharing news, celebrating achievements, and reminding classmates.
- D) The school started a morning announcements team because students, news, achievements, and events.

RW4-M1-020

Prompt:

While researching a topic, a student has taken the following notes:

- Dolores Huerta is a labor leader and civil rights activist.
- She helped organize farmworkers in California.
- Huerta cofounded the United Farm Workers with Cesar Chavez.
- She advocated for better wages and safer working conditions.
- Huerta has received national recognition for her activism.

The student wants to explain Huerta's role in the farmworker movement. Which choice most effectively uses relevant information from the notes?

- A) Dolores Huerta, a labor leader and civil rights activist, helped organize farmworkers and advocated for better wages and safer working conditions.

- B) Dolores Huerta has received national recognition, and many activists have been recognized for their work.
C) California has many farms, and farmworkers perform difficult jobs.
D) Cesar Chavez cofounded the United Farm Workers with Dolores Huerta.

RW4-M1-021

Prompt:

A student recorded the number of library books checked out during four class visits.

Class | Books checked out

Class A | 19

Class B | 24

Class C | 21

Class D | 16

Question:

Which choice is supported by the data in the table?

- A) Class B checked out the greatest number of books.
B) Class D checked out more books than Class C.
C) Class A and Class C checked out the same number of books.
D) No class checked out more than 21 books.

RW4-M1-022

Prompt:

In a paragraph about school gardens, a writer states, “Students measured soil moisture, compared leaf shapes, and recorded the insects they observed on flowers.”

Question:

What is the most likely purpose of the sentence?

- A) To give examples of learning activities students can do in a school garden
B) To explain why flowers cannot grow in school gardens
C) To argue that insects should be removed from all gardens
D) To compare soil moisture with the height of school buildings

RW4-M1-023

Prompt:

The documentary, _____ was filmed over three years, follows a group of young musicians.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) which
B) which,
C) that
D) that,

RW4-M1-024

Prompt:

The course teaches students to evaluate sources, to organize evidence, and _____ a clear argument.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) writing
B) to write

- C) wrote
- D) the writing of

RW4-M1-025

Prompt:

The museum label was too general, so the curator added dates, names, and locations to make the object's history more _____.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) precise
- B) distant
- C) crowded
- D) silent

RW4-M1-026

Prompt:

A student wants to begin an essay about why schools should teach financial literacy. Which choice would be the most effective opening sentence for the essay?

- A) Financial literacy classes can help students make informed decisions about saving, spending, and borrowing money.
- B) Some students carry wallets, while others use backpacks with small pockets.
- C) Money can be made of paper, metal, or digital records.
- D) My school's main hallway has a bulletin board about club meetings.

RW4-M1-027

Prompt:

The town installed shaded seating at several bus stops. _____ riders had a cooler place to wait during hot afternoons.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

- A) Consequently,
- B) In contrast,
- C) For instance,
- D) Meanwhile,

PART B — MODULE 2 QUESTIONS

RW4-M2-001

Prompt:

In her photographs of the Great Depression, Dorothea Lange often focused on faces, hands, and posture rather than on large crowds or dramatic scenes. This approach encouraged viewers to see economic hardship through individual experience. Lange's images therefore made broad social conditions feel _____.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) personal
- B) imaginary
- C) avoidable
- D) decorative

RW4-M2-002

Prompt:

Engineers developing earthquake-resistant buildings often design structures that can bend slightly instead of remaining completely rigid. Although a rigid structure may seem stronger, controlled flexibility can help a building absorb and release energy during shaking, reducing the chance of sudden failure.

Question:

Which choice best states the main idea of the text?

- A) Controlled flexibility can help buildings withstand earthquakes more safely than total rigidity can.
- B) Earthquake-resistant buildings are designed to avoid moving under any circumstances.
- C) Engineers prefer rigid structures because they always fail more slowly than flexible ones.
- D) Buildings can be protected from earthquakes only by making them shorter.

RW4-M2-003

Prompt:

Some historians study cookbooks not only for recipes but also for clues about trade, technology, and daily life. A cookbook that calls for canned pineapple, for example, may reflect changes in food preservation and transportation. Such details can show how ingredients from distant places became available to home cooks.

Question:

Which choice is the best inference from the text?

- A) Cookbooks can provide evidence about historical changes beyond cooking itself.
- B) Historians study cookbooks only when they are not interested in technology.
- C) Canned pineapple was unavailable to home cooks in every historical period.
- D) Recipes are less useful to historians than official government documents are.

RW4-M2-004

Prompt:

A student's draft about writer Octavia Butler includes the following sentences.

Butler's fiction often imagines future societies shaped by power, survival, and inequality. By setting these conflicts in invented worlds, Butler could examine real social problems from unexpected angles.

Question:

What is the main function of the second sentence in the text?

- A) It explains how Butler's fictional settings helped her explore real-world issues.
- B) It argues that Butler wrote only about problems that had already been solved.
- C) It lists the scientific inventions described in Butler's novels.
- D) It shows that Butler avoided writing about society.

RW4-M2-005

Prompt:

A researcher compared the average number of minutes students spent on four homework activities before and after a study-skills workshop.

Activity | Before workshop | After workshop

Reading notes | 18 | 24

Solving practice problems | 22 | 29

Rewatching lesson videos | 31 | 20

Organizing assignments | 12 | 17

Question:

Which choice best describes the data?

- A) After the workshop, students spent more time reading notes, solving practice problems, and organizing assignments, but less time rewatching lesson videos.
- B) After the workshop, students spent less time on all four activities.
- C) Rewatching lesson videos had the greatest increase after the workshop.
- D) Reading notes and organizing assignments took the same amount of time after the workshop.

RW4-M2-006

Prompt:

A digital map can be updated quickly when roads close or new bike lanes are added. _____ a printed map may remain useful when a phone battery dies or there is no internet connection.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

- A) On the other hand,
- B) As a result,
- C) In other words,
- D) For example,

RW4-M2-007

Prompt:

The report identifies three causes of the delay _____ equipment shortages, late permits, and bad weather.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) delay
- B) delay:
- C) delay,
- D) delay;

RW4-M2-008

Prompt:

While sorting the donated books, _____.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) several torn covers were discovered
- B) the boxes became easier to organize
- C) volunteers found several rare editions
- D) there were several rare editions in one box

RW4-M2-009

Prompt:

The coach spoke with the team captain after practice, and _____ agreed that the warm-up routine should be changed.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English and avoids ambiguity?

- A) they

- B) he
- C) the coach
- D) it

RW4-M2-010

Prompt:

By the time the audience entered the auditorium, the stage crew _____ the final lighting check.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) completes
- B) has completed
- C) had completed
- D) completing

RW4-M2-011

Prompt:

While researching a topic, a student has taken the following notes:

- Katherine Johnson was a mathematician.
- She calculated flight paths for NASA missions.
- Her calculations helped support the first US crewed spaceflights.
- Johnson also worked on calculations for the Apollo 11 mission to the Moon.
- She was later widely recognized for her contributions to space exploration.

The student wants to explain the significance of Johnson's mathematical work. Which choice most effectively uses relevant information from the notes?

- A) Katherine Johnson, a mathematician, performed calculations that helped support early US crewed spaceflights and the Apollo 11 mission.
- B) Katherine Johnson was later widely recognized, and recognition can come many years after important work.
- C) NASA missions often require many workers with different kinds of training.
- D) The Apollo 11 mission traveled to the Moon, which had long interested scientists.

RW4-M2-012

Prompt:

A student is revising an essay about community solar projects, which allow multiple households to share electricity from one solar installation. The student wants to add a sentence that explains a possible advantage of these projects. Which choice best accomplishes this goal?

- A) Community solar projects can allow renters or people without suitable rooftops to benefit from solar power.
- B) Solar panels convert sunlight into electricity that can be used in homes and businesses.
- C) Some solar installations are built on rooftops, while others are built on open land.
- D) Community solar projects require agreements about billing and maintenance.

RW4-M2-013

Prompt:

The following text is from a draft of a student's essay.

(1) Citizen science projects allow members of the public to contribute to research. (2) In one project, volunteers record the dates when certain flowers first bloom in spring. (3) Scientists can use these observations to study how seasonal patterns change over time. (4) Because many volunteers collect data in different places, the project can cover a wide geographic area.

Question:

Where should the following sentence be placed to best support the logical flow of the paragraph?

This type of plant-timing data is known as phenology data.

- A) After sentence 1
- B) After sentence 2
- C) After sentence 3
- D) After sentence 4

RW4-M2-014

Prompt:

The committee's recommendation was not _____; rather than choosing one plan immediately, the committee suggested gathering more public feedback before making a decision.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) final
- B) careful
- C) public
- D) detailed

RW4-M2-015

Prompt:

Researchers studying urban birds found that some species changed the pitch of their songs in areas with heavy traffic noise. Birds whose songs were less masked by traffic were more likely to be heard by potential mates. The researchers concluded that noise levels may influence how some birds communicate.

Question:

Which choice best describes the relationship between the evidence and the researchers' conclusion?

- A) The observed song changes in noisy areas support the conclusion that traffic noise may affect bird communication.
- B) The evidence proves that all bird species sing at the same pitch in cities.
- C) The conclusion rejects the idea that birds communicate through sound.
- D) The evidence shows that traffic noise prevents birds from hearing any songs at all.

RW4-M2-016

Prompt:

The guide explains how to apply for the internship, _____ it also lists the documents applicants must submit.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) internship, it
- B) internship and
- C) internship; and
- D) internship, and

RW4-M2-017

Prompt:

A materials scientist tested two fabrics to see which blocked more ultraviolet light. She placed equal-sized samples under the same light source and measured how much UV radiation passed through each fabric. Fabric B allowed less UV radiation to pass through than Fabric A did.

Question:

Which conclusion is best supported by the text?

- A) Under the conditions tested, Fabric B blocked more ultraviolet light than Fabric A did.
- B) Fabric A and Fabric B are identical in every way.
- C) Ultraviolet radiation cannot pass through any fabric.
- D) Fabric B allows more ultraviolet light through when the light source changes.

RW4-M2-018

Prompt:

The article first describes how musicians tune instruments before a performance. _____ it explains how temperature changes can cause strings and wind instruments to shift out of tune.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

- A) Then,
- B) Even so,
- C) By contrast,
- D) Nevertheless,

RW4-M2-019

Prompt:

The series of photographs from the field trip _____ students collecting water samples, labeling bottles, and taking notes.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) show
- B) shows
- C) showing
- D) have shown

RW4-M2-020

Prompt:

The _____ shell has a spiral shape that helps protect its soft body from predators.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) snail's
- B) snails
- C) snails'
- D) snailes'

RW4-M2-021

Prompt:

While researching a topic, a student has taken the following notes:

- The Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) was created in 1933.
- The CCC employed young men on conservation projects.
- Workers planted trees and built trails in parks and forests.
- Some CCC crews helped control soil erosion.
- The program also provided wages, food, and housing to workers.

The student wants to emphasize both the environmental and economic roles of the CCC. Which choice most effectively uses relevant information from the notes?

- A) Created in 1933, the CCC employed young men on projects that planted trees, built trails, controlled erosion, and provided workers with wages, food, and housing.
- B) The CCC was one of several programs created during the 1930s.
- C) Workers in parks and forests often built trails that visitors could use for many years.
- D) Soil erosion can damage farmland, roads, and waterways if it is not controlled.

RW4-M2-022

Prompt:

A student is revising the following sentence.

The school's podcast features student interviews, and it also gives listeners updates about clubs and events.

The student wants to emphasize that the podcast both highlights student voices and shares practical information. Which choice best revises the sentence to accomplish this goal?

- A) The school's podcast highlights student voices through interviews while giving listeners practical updates about clubs and events.
- B) The school's podcast has interviews, and students at the school sometimes listen to podcasts.
- C) Listeners can hear updates about clubs and events on the school's podcast, which is recorded at school.
- D) Student interviews are featured on the school's podcast, and interviews include people answering questions.

RW4-M2-023

Prompt:

At the flea market, Mateo picked up a small brass compass with a cracked glass cover. It no longer pointed north, but he turned it over in his palm as if it still held a secret. His father had once told stories about using a compass on camping trips, and Mateo suddenly wished he had listened more closely.

Question:

Which choice best describes what the text suggests about Mateo?

- A) The compass makes him regret not paying closer attention to his father's stories.
- B) He is planning to repair the compass and sell it for a high price.
- C) He believes the compass is more accurate than modern maps.
- D) The compass reminds him that he dislikes camping trips.

RW4-M2-024

Prompt:

The architect added skylights above the reading room, _____ natural light to reach the center of the building.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) allowing
- B) allowed
- C) allows
- D) and allowing

RW4-M2-025

Prompt:

Because the original interview recordings contained background noise, the researcher used written transcripts to _____ the speakers' exact words.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) confirm
- B) decorate
- C) postpone
- D) erase

RW4-M2-026

Prompt:

The workshop covered three steps in preparing a public speech: choosing a focused topic, outlining the main points, and _____.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) practicing the delivery aloud
- B) the delivery was practiced aloud
- C) to practice the delivery aloud
- D) practiced aloud delivery

RW4-M2-027

Prompt:

While researching a topic, a student has taken the following notes:

- Mycorrhizal fungi live around or within plant roots.
- The fungi can help plants absorb water and nutrients from soil.
- In return, plants provide the fungi with sugars made during photosynthesis.
- This relationship can benefit both organisms.
- Some forests depend on networks of mycorrhizal fungi that connect many plants.

The student wants to explain the mutual benefit between plants and mycorrhizal fungi. Which choice most effectively uses relevant information from the notes?

- A) Mycorrhizal fungi live around or within plant roots and may form networks in some forests.
- B) Mycorrhizal fungi and plants can benefit each other: the fungi help plants absorb water and nutrients, while plants provide the fungi with sugars.
- C) Photosynthesis allows plants to make sugars, and many organisms depend on plants for food.
- D) Some forests include many plants whose roots grow near fungi in the soil.

PART C — MODULE 1 ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

RW4-M1-001 — Correct: central — Explanation: The text emphasizes Savage's important artwork and support for other artists, so "central" best describes her role.

RW4-M1-002 — Correct: Tactile paving helps people with limited vision move through public spaces more safely. — Explanation: The passage explains that tactile paving warns people who are blind or have low vision about areas requiring caution.

RW4-M1-003 — Correct: The Coding Club had the most students sign up. — Explanation: The Coding Club had 31 students sign up, more than the other clubs.

RW4-M1-004 — Correct: Samira improves by slowing down and thinking ahead. — Explanation: Samira stops rushing, considers her opponent's possible moves, and begins noticing mistakes before making them.

RW4-M1-005 — Correct: It explains a practical reason that symbols appeared on bookshop signs.

— Explanation: The sentence explains that symbols helped customers locate shops before numbered addresses were common.

RW4-M1-006 — Correct: Additionally, — Explanation: The second sentence adds another feature of the science fair.

RW4-M1-007 — Correct: appears — Explanation: The singular subject “list” requires the singular verb “appears.”

RW4-M1-008 — Correct: condor, — Explanation: A comma is needed before the nonessential phrase “one of the largest flying birds in the world.”

RW4-M1-009 — Correct: their — Explanation: The possessive pronoun “their” correctly refers to equipment belonging to the players.

RW4-M1-010 — Correct: Annie Easley, a mathematician and computer scientist, wrote code for energy and rocket systems while working at NASA and its predecessor agency. — Explanation: This choice introduces Easley and identifies her technical field and work.

RW4-M1-011 — Correct: However, — Explanation: The second sentence contrasts the app’s helpful features with the cost of advanced features.

RW4-M1-012 — Correct: where it is now. — Explanation: Sentence 3 logically follows the list of items by explaining that the kit should be checked and updated.

RW4-M1-013 — Correct: created — Explanation: “Last week” requires the past-tense verb “created.”

RW4-M1-014 — Correct: Located — Explanation: “Located near the entrance of the park” correctly modifies “the information board.”

RW4-M1-015 — Correct: early because the water — Explanation: “Because” correctly introduces the reason the café closed early.

RW4-M1-016 — Correct: analyze — Explanation: The librarian studies records and counts in order to examine patterns, so “analyze” is the most precise choice.

RW4-M1-017 — Correct: School lending programs can make supplies and equipment more accessible to students. — Explanation: The passage explains that lending programs help students participate without requiring families to buy occasional-use items.

RW4-M1-018 — Correct: They allow owls to fly more quietly. — Explanation: The text says soft-edged feathers reduce noise as owls fly.

RW4-M1-019 — Correct: The school started a morning announcements team that lets students share news, celebrate achievements, and remind classmates about events. — Explanation: This choice combines the ideas clearly and avoids a comma splice.

RW4-M1-020 — Correct: Dolores Huerta, a labor leader and civil rights activist, helped organize farmworkers and advocated for better wages and safer working conditions. — Explanation: This choice explains Huerta’s role in organizing farmworkers and advocating for improved conditions.

RW4-M1-021 — Correct: Class B checked out the greatest number of books. — Explanation: Class B checked out 24 books, more than the other classes.

RW4-M1-022 — Correct: To give examples of learning activities students can do in a school garden — Explanation: The sentence lists activities students performed in the garden.

RW4-M1-023 — Correct: which — Explanation: “Which” correctly begins the nonessential clause set off by commas.

RW4-M1-024 — Correct: to write — Explanation: The phrase completes the parallel structure: “to evaluate,” “to organize,” and “to write.”

RW4-M1-025 — Correct: precise — Explanation: Adding dates, names, and locations makes the object’s history more specific and exact.

RW4-M1-026 — Correct: Financial literacy classes can help students make informed decisions about saving, spending, and borrowing money. — Explanation: This sentence clearly introduces the essay’s focus on the value of financial literacy.

RW4-M1-027 — Correct: Consequently, — Explanation: The cooler waiting area is presented as an effect of installing shaded seating.

PART D — MODULE 2 ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

RW4-M2-001 — Correct: personal — Explanation: The text says Lange focused on individuals so viewers would understand broad economic hardship through individual experience.

RW4-M2-002 — Correct: Controlled flexibility can help buildings withstand earthquakes more safely than total rigidity can. — Explanation: The passage explains that flexibility helps structures absorb and release energy during shaking.

RW4-M2-003 — Correct: Cookbooks can provide evidence about historical changes beyond cooking itself. — Explanation: The text says cookbooks can reveal information about trade, preservation, transportation, and daily life.

RW4-M2-004 — Correct: It explains how Butler’s fictional settings helped her explore real-world issues. — Explanation: The second sentence states that invented worlds allowed Butler to examine real social problems from unexpected angles.

RW4-M2-005 — Correct: After the workshop, students spent more time reading notes, solving practice problems, and organizing assignments, but less time rewatching lesson videos. — Explanation: The first, second, and fourth activities increased after the workshop, while rewatching videos decreased from 31 to 20 minutes.

RW4-M2-006 — Correct: On the other hand, — Explanation: The sentence contrasts an advantage of digital maps with an advantage of printed maps.

RW4-M2-007 — Correct: delay: — Explanation: A colon correctly introduces the list of three causes of the delay.

RW4-M2-008 — Correct: volunteers found several rare editions — Explanation: The introductory modifier “While sorting the donated books” must logically describe the volunteers.

RW4-M2-009 — Correct: the coach — Explanation: Repeating “the coach” avoids ambiguity about whether “they” refers to the coach and captain together.

RW4-M2-010 — Correct: had completed — Explanation: The past perfect tense shows that the lighting check was completed before the audience entered.

RW4-M2-011 — Correct: Katherine Johnson, a mathematician, performed calculations that helped support early US crewed spaceflights and the Apollo 11 mission. — Explanation: This choice explains the significance of Johnson’s calculations for major NASA missions.

RW4-M2-012 — Correct: Community solar projects can allow renters or people without suitable rooftops to benefit from solar power. — Explanation: This sentence directly states a possible advantage of shared solar installations.

RW4-M2-013 — Correct: After sentence 2 — Explanation: The added sentence defines the plant-timing observations described in sentence 2 before sentence 3 explains how scientists use them.

RW4-M2-014 — Correct: final — Explanation: The committee did not make an immediate choice but recommended gathering more feedback, so the recommendation was not final.

RW4-M2-015 — Correct: The observed song changes in noisy areas support the conclusion that traffic noise may affect bird communication. — Explanation: The evidence shows that birds changed song pitch in areas with heavy traffic noise.

RW4-M2-016 — Correct: internship, and — Explanation: A comma plus “and” correctly joins two independent clauses.

RW4-M2-017 — Correct: Under the conditions tested, Fabric B blocked more ultraviolet light than Fabric A did. — Explanation: Fabric B allowed less UV radiation to pass through under the same test conditions.

RW4-M2-018 — Correct: Then, — Explanation: The article moves from one topic, tuning instruments, to a related explanation about how temperature affects tuning.

RW4-M2-019 — Correct: shows — Explanation: The singular subject “series” requires the singular verb “shows.”

RW4-M2-020 — Correct: snail’s — Explanation: The sentence refers to one snail, so the singular possessive “snail’s” is correct.

RW4-M2-021 — Correct: Created in 1933, the CCC employed young men on projects that planted trees, built trails, controlled erosion, and provided workers with wages, food, and housing. — Explanation: This choice emphasizes both conservation work and support for workers.

RW4-M2-022 — Correct: The school’s podcast highlights student voices through interviews while giving listeners practical updates about clubs and events. — Explanation: This revision emphasizes both student interviews and useful information for listeners.

RW4-M2-023 — Correct: The compass makes him regret not paying closer attention to his father’s stories. — Explanation: Mateo wishes he had listened more closely to his father’s compass stories after finding the old compass.

RW4-M2-024 — Correct: allowing — Explanation: The participle “allowing” correctly shows the result of adding skylights.

RW4-M2-025 — Correct: confirm — Explanation: Written transcripts can help the researcher check the speakers’ exact words despite background noise in the recordings.

RW4-M2-026 — Correct: practicing the delivery aloud — Explanation: This choice keeps the list grammatically parallel: “choosing,” “outlining,” and “practicing.”

RW4-M2-027 — Correct: Mycorrhizal fungi and plants can benefit each other: the fungi help plants absorb water and nutrients, while plants provide the fungi with sugars. — Explanation: This choice explains both sides of the mutually beneficial relationship.