

PART A — MODULE 1 QUESTIONS

RW9-M1-001

Prompt:

Painter Alma Thomas became known for canvases filled with bright blocks of color arranged in rhythmic patterns. Rather than trying to copy scenes exactly, Thomas used color and shape to suggest movement, light, and emotion. Her style was therefore highly _____.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) distinctive
- B) temporary
- C) invisible
- D) accidental

RW9-M1-002

Prompt:

Farmers sometimes plant rows of trees or shrubs along the edges of fields. These rows, called windbreaks, slow strong winds that can dry out soil or damage crops. Windbreaks may also provide shelter for birds and beneficial insects.

Question:

Which choice best states the main idea of the text?

- A) Windbreaks can protect fields from wind while also supporting some wildlife.
- B) Windbreaks are planted only to make farms look more decorative.
- C) Strong winds help crops grow by removing all moisture from the soil.
- D) Trees and shrubs cannot grow near farm fields.

RW9-M1-003

Prompt:

The bundle of letters from the archive _____ tied with a faded blue ribbon.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) were
- B) are
- C) was
- D) have been

RW9-M1-004

Prompt:

A student recorded the amount of paper collected for recycling in four classrooms.

Classroom | Pounds of paper collected

Room A | 17

Room B | 23

Room C | 19

Room D | 26

Question:

Which choice is supported by the data in the table?

- A) Room D collected the greatest amount of paper.
- B) Room A collected more paper than Room B.

- C) Room B and Room C collected the same amount of paper.
D) No classroom collected more than 23 pounds of paper.

RW9-M1-005

Prompt:

Mara joined the school orchestra hoping to play the loudest notes in every song. During rehearsal, however, the conductor asked her to pay attention to the rests and quiet passages. Mara soon realized that the softer moments helped the music build toward its most powerful sections.

Question:

Which choice best describes what happens in the text?

- A) Mara learns that quiet parts can be important to a musical performance.
B) Mara decides that she should stop playing in the orchestra.
C) Mara proves that every instrument should play loudly at all times.
D) Mara teaches the conductor how to rewrite the music.

RW9-M1-006

Prompt:

In a passage about early bicycle paths, a historian explains that some cities first built smooth paths for cyclists before automobiles became common. The historian adds, “These paths were not only recreational; they also helped riders travel more safely over rough or muddy roads.”

Question:

What is the main function of the quoted sentence?

- A) It explains a practical benefit of early bicycle paths.
B) It argues that bicycles were invented after automobiles.
C) It describes the process of making bicycle tires.
D) It shows that cyclists avoided all forms of transportation.

RW9-M1-007

Prompt:

The new student handbook explains attendance rules clearly. _____ some sections about club activities still need more detail.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

- A) However,
B) In addition,
C) For example,
D) Therefore,

RW9-M1-008

Prompt:

The essay discusses the pangolin, _____ mammal covered with protective scales.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) a
B) an
C) the
D) those

RW9-M1-009

Prompt:

After the science team presented the results, _____ answered questions from the audience.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) they
- B) them
- C) their
- D) themselves

RW9-M1-010

Prompt:

While researching a topic, a student has taken the following notes:

- Tu Youyou is a Chinese scientist.
- She studied traditional medical texts while searching for malaria treatments.
- Her team helped develop artemisinin, a medicine used to treat malaria.
- Artemisinin has helped save many lives.
- Tu received the Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine in 2015.

The student wants to explain the significance of Tu's scientific work. Which choice most effectively uses relevant information from the notes?

- A) Tu Youyou's work helped develop artemisinin, a malaria treatment that has helped save many lives.
- B) Tu Youyou studied traditional medical texts, and many old texts include information about plants.
- C) The Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine is awarded to scientists in several fields.
- D) Malaria is one disease that researchers have studied for many years.

RW9-M1-011

Prompt:

The city opened a new pedestrian bridge over the creek. _____ students no longer have to walk along the busy road to reach the park.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

- A) As a result,
- B) In contrast,
- C) For example,
- D) Meanwhile,

RW9-M1-012

Prompt:

The following text is from a draft of a student's essay.

(1) A school archive preserves materials related to school history. (2) It may include yearbooks, photographs, newsletters, and event programs. (3) Students can use these materials to learn how their school has changed over time. (4) For instance, old photographs may show former clubs, classrooms, or uniforms.

Question:

To make the paragraph most logical, sentence 4 should be placed

- A) where it is now.
- B) before sentence 1.

- C) between sentence 1 and sentence 2.
- D) between sentence 2 and sentence 3.

RW9-M1-013

Prompt:

Yesterday afternoon, the gardening club _____ herbs in containers outside the cafeteria.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) plants
- B) planted
- C) will plant
- D) planting

RW9-M1-014

Prompt:

_____ by a local carpenter, the wooden sign marked the entrance to the trail.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) Carved
- B) Carving
- C) To carve
- D) Carve

RW9-M1-015

Prompt:

The practice game was moved to the smaller gym _____ the main gym floor had just been polished.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) gym, the main
- B) gym because the main
- C) gym; because the main
- D) gym, because, the main

RW9-M1-016

Prompt:

To learn which book displays attracted the most readers, the librarian compared checkout numbers before and after each display was set up. She used the data to _____ which displays encouraged more borrowing.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) assess
- B) decorate
- C) interrupt
- D) hide

RW9-M1-017

Prompt:

Some neighborhoods create shared tool sheds where residents can borrow rakes, shovels, or ladders. These sheds can help people complete home or garden projects without buying tools they may rarely use.

Question:

Which choice best states the main idea of the text?

- A) Shared tool sheds can help residents access useful equipment without purchasing it.
- B) Residents must buy new tools before borrowing from shared sheds.
- C) Shared tool sheds are useful only for people who never work outdoors.
- D) Rakes, shovels, and ladders cannot be stored together.

RW9-M1-018

Prompt:

Biologists studying snowshoe hares note that the animals' large back feet help them move across deep snow. The feet spread the hare's weight over a wider area, making it less likely to sink.

Question:

According to the text, how do large back feet help snowshoe hares?

- A) They help the hares move across deep snow without sinking as easily.
- B) They allow the hares to live only in warm deserts.
- C) They make the hares unable to run from predators.
- D) They prevent snow from forming in forests.

RW9-M1-019

Prompt:

A student is revising the following sentence.

The school opened a peer writing center, and students can visit it to brainstorm ideas, organize essays, or review drafts.

Question:

Which choice best combines the ideas clearly and concisely?

- A) The school opened a peer writing center where students can brainstorm ideas, organize essays, or review drafts.
- B) The school opened a peer writing center, students can visit it to brainstorm ideas, organize essays, or review drafts.
- C) The school opened a peer writing center and brainstorming ideas, organizing essays, or reviewing drafts.
- D) The school opened a peer writing center because students, ideas, essays, and drafts.

RW9-M1-020

Prompt:

While researching a topic, a student has taken the following notes:

- Gordon Parks was a photographer, filmmaker, and writer.
- He worked as a photojournalist for Life magazine.
- His photographs often documented poverty, segregation, and everyday life.
- Parks later directed films and wrote books.
- His career combined art with social observation.

The student wants to introduce Parks and the focus of his photography. Which choice most effectively uses relevant information from the notes?

- A) Gordon Parks, a photographer and photojournalist, created images that documented poverty, segregation, and everyday life.
- B) Gordon Parks later directed films and wrote books after working in photography.

- C) Life magazine published photographs and articles on many different topics.
- D) Photography is one of several art forms that can be used in journalism.

RW9-M1-021

Prompt:

A student recorded the number of seedlings watered by four garden volunteers.

Volunteer | Seedlings watered

Ana | 32

Dev | 41

Mia | 37

Noah | 29

Question:

Which choice is supported by the data in the table?

- A) Dev watered the greatest number of seedlings.
- B) Noah watered more seedlings than Mia.
- C) Ana and Dev watered the same number of seedlings.
- D) No volunteer watered more than 37 seedlings.

RW9-M1-022

Prompt:

In a paragraph about school announcements, a writer states, “Students wrote short scripts, checked event dates, recorded audio clips, and edited the final announcements.”

Question:

What is the most likely purpose of the sentence?

- A) To give examples of tasks students completed to create announcements
- B) To explain why event dates should never be checked
- C) To argue that recorded audio clips are unrelated to announcements
- D) To compare school announcements with printed novels

RW9-M1-023

Prompt:

The painting _____ hangs near the library entrance was donated by a former student.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) that
- B) who
- C) where
- D) when

RW9-M1-024

Prompt:

The lesson asks students to observe a reaction, to record changes, and _____ possible explanations.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) suggesting
- B) to suggest
- C) suggested
- D) the suggestion of

RW9-M1-025

Prompt:

The map of the park was confusing, so the designer added a legend to make the symbols more _____.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) understandable
- B) distant
- C) accidental
- D) crowded

RW9-M1-026

Prompt:

A student wants to begin an essay about why schools should offer career exploration programs.

Which choice would be the most effective opening sentence for the essay?

- A) Career exploration programs can help students learn about different jobs and connect their interests to future goals.
- B) Some jobs require uniforms, while others require name tags or badges.
- C) A career is a type of work a person may do for many years.
- D) My school has a bulletin board with posters about different clubs.

RW9-M1-027

Prompt:

The town added more bike racks near the library entrance. _____ cyclists had a safer and more convenient place to park their bikes.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

- A) Consequently,
- B) Nevertheless,
- C) For example,
- D) Earlier,

PART B — MODULE 2 QUESTIONS

RW9-M2-001

Prompt:

Novelist Louise Erdrich often writes about families, communities, and histories that overlap across generations. Her novels may shift among several voices, allowing readers to see how one event can carry different meanings for different people. This narrative approach _____ the idea that a single perspective can fully explain the past.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) complicates
- B) repeats
- C) measures
- D) postpones

RW9-M2-002

Prompt:

Researchers studying ancient shells can sometimes reconstruct past ocean conditions. The chemical composition of a shell may reflect the temperature and chemistry of the water in which the organism lived. By comparing shells from different layers of sediment, scientists can track environmental changes over long periods.

Question:

Which choice best states the main idea of the text?

- A) Ancient shells can preserve chemical evidence that helps scientists study past ocean environments.
- B) Ancient shells are useful only when scientists ignore the sediment around them.
- C) All shells from different sediment layers have identical chemical compositions.
- D) Ocean conditions can be studied only by using modern satellite images.

RW9-M2-003

Prompt:

Some classrooms use flexible seating, such as stools, standing desks, or floor cushions, rather than only traditional desks. These choices can help students select a work area that suits a particular task. However, flexible seating works best when teachers establish clear expectations so that movement does not become distracting.

Question:

Which choice is the best inference from the text?

- A) Flexible seating can support classroom work, but it requires clear guidelines.
- B) Flexible seating prevents students from choosing where to work.
- C) Traditional desks always cause more distraction than any other seating option.
- D) Teachers use flexible seating only when students no longer complete assignments.

RW9-M2-004

Prompt:

A student's draft about scientist Marie Tharp includes the following sentences.

Tharp used sonar data to help map the ocean floor, revealing features such as the Mid-Atlantic Ridge. Her maps helped make the deep seafloor visible to researchers who could not directly observe it on such a large scale.

Question:

What is the main function of the second sentence in the text?

- A) It explains why Tharp's mapping work was important to ocean research.
- B) It argues that sonar data made all ocean exploration unnecessary.
- C) It lists every feature found on the Mid-Atlantic Ridge.
- D) It shows that Tharp studied only shallow coastal waters.

RW9-M2-005

Prompt:

A researcher compared the average number of minutes students spent using four features of a school learning platform before and after a navigation update.

Feature	Before update	After update
Assignment calendar	17	25
Discussion board	21	24
Grade tracker	30	27
Resource library	14	20

Question:

Which choice best describes the data?

- A) Students spent more time using the assignment calendar, discussion board, and resource library after the update, but less time using the grade tracker.

B) Students spent less time using all four features after the update.

C) The grade tracker had the greatest increase after the update.

D) The discussion board and resource library had the same time after the update.

RW9-M2-006

Prompt:

A community garden can provide fresh produce and a place for neighbors to meet. _____ if garden tasks are not shared fairly, a few volunteers may become responsible for most of the work.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

A) However,

B) Similarly,

C) For example,

D) Therefore,

RW9-M2-007

Prompt:

The presentation highlights three strategies for reducing household energy use _____ sealing air leaks, washing clothes in cold water, and unplugging unused devices.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

A) use

B) use:

C) use,

D) use;

RW9-M2-008

Prompt:

Reading the inscription on the weathered stone marker, _____.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

A) the date became easier to recognize

B) several letters were still difficult to make out

C) the student noticed that several letters were missing

D) there were several missing letters near the bottom

RW9-M2-009

Prompt:

The journalist consulted the photographer before submitting the article, and _____ agreed that one image should be replaced.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English and avoids ambiguity?

A) they

B) the journalist

C) she

D) it

RW9-M2-010

Prompt:

Before the doors opened for the book sale, volunteers _____ the tables by genre.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) arrange
- B) have arranged
- C) had arranged
- D) arranging

RW9-M2-011

Prompt:

While researching a topic, a student has taken the following notes:

- Ruth Asawa was a sculptor known for wire forms.
- She learned basket-weaving techniques while studying in Mexico.
- Her looped-wire sculptures often appear light and transparent.
- Some of her works hang from ceilings and cast complex shadows.
- Asawa also supported arts education in public schools.

The student wants to explain a distinctive feature of Asawa's sculpture. Which choice most effectively uses relevant information from the notes?

- A) Ruth Asawa's looped-wire sculptures often appear light and transparent and can cast complex shadows when suspended.
- B) Ruth Asawa supported arts education in public schools as well as creating sculpture.
- C) Basket-weaving techniques are used in many places and can involve repeated patterns.
- D) Some sculptures are displayed on pedestals, while others hang from ceilings.

RW9-M2-012

Prompt:

A student is revising an essay about schools using refillable marker systems instead of disposable markers. The student wants to add a sentence that explains a possible advantage of refillable markers. Which choice best accomplishes this goal?

- A) Refillable marker systems can reduce plastic waste because empty markers can be filled again instead of thrown away.
- B) Markers are often used on whiteboards in classrooms, offices, and meeting rooms.
- C) Some markers come in colors such as black, blue, green, and red.
- D) Teachers may store markers in desk drawers or supply bins.

RW9-M2-013

Prompt:

The following text is from a draft of a student's essay.

(1) Some researchers study microplastics, tiny plastic particles found in many environments. (2) These particles can come from larger plastic items that break apart over time. (3) They can also come from small plastic beads or fibers released during washing. (4) Because microplastics are so widespread, scientists are studying how they move through water, soil, and food webs.

Question:

Where should the following sentence be placed to best support the logical flow of the paragraph?

Microplastics are generally smaller than five millimeters.

- A) After sentence 1

- B) After sentence 2
- C) After sentence 3
- D) After sentence 4

RW9-M2-014

Prompt:

The historian's account of the protest was not _____; it included statements from organizers, local officials, business owners, and residents who had watched from nearby streets.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) one-sided
- B) recent
- C) public
- D) brief

RW9-M2-015

Prompt:

Researchers studying a grassland found that plots with a greater mix of native grasses and flowering plants had more insect species than plots planted with only one grass species. The researchers concluded that plant diversity may help support insect diversity in restored grasslands.

Question:

Which choice best describes the relationship between the evidence and the researchers' conclusion?

- A) The higher number of insect species in plots with mixed native plants supports the conclusion that plant diversity may support insect diversity.
- B) The evidence proves that insects cannot live in grasslands with any grass species.
- C) The conclusion rejects the idea that flowering plants can grow in restored grasslands.
- D) The evidence shows that all restored grasslands have exactly the same insect species.

RW9-M2-016

Prompt:

The brochure explains the summer program's daily schedule, _____ it also describes transportation options for participants.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) schedule, it
- B) schedule and
- C) schedule; and
- D) schedule, and

RW9-M2-017

Prompt:

An engineer tested two sidewalk materials to see which became less slippery when wet. She placed equal-sized samples of Material A and Material B under the same amount of water, then measured the friction of each surface. Material A had a higher friction measurement than Material B.

Question:

Which conclusion is best supported by the text?

- A) Under the conditions tested, Material A was less slippery when wet than Material B.
- B) Material B cannot be used in any outdoor setting.
- C) Water always increases the friction of every sidewalk material.
- D) The two materials were tested under different water conditions.

RW9-M2-018

Prompt:

The article first explains that some cities convert empty lots into temporary parks. _____ it describes a neighborhood where a temporary park became popular enough to inspire a permanent one.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical transition?

- A) Then,
- B) Even so,
- C) In contrast,
- D) Nevertheless,

RW9-M2-019

Prompt:

The collection of oral histories from former mill workers _____ interviews, photographs, and handwritten notes.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) include
- B) includes
- C) including
- D) are including

RW9-M2-020

Prompt:

The _____ nest is built from twigs and mud and tucked beneath the roof of the barn.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) robin's
- B) robins
- C) robins'
- D) robines'

RW9-M2-021

Prompt:

While researching a topic, a student has taken the following notes:

- The Freedmen's Bureau was established in 1865.
- It assisted formerly enslaved people and some poor white Southerners after the Civil War.
- The Bureau helped establish schools.
- It also supported labor contracts and provided some food and medical aid.
- The Bureau faced political opposition and limited funding.

The student wants to explain the kinds of assistance the Freedmen's Bureau provided. Which choice most effectively uses relevant information from the notes?

- A) The Freedmen's Bureau, established after the Civil War, helped establish schools, supported labor contracts, and provided some food and medical aid.
- B) The Freedmen's Bureau was established in 1865 and faced political opposition during its work.
- C) The Civil War ended before the Freedmen's Bureau began its assistance programs.
- D) Political opposition and limited funding affected many organizations in the nineteenth century.

RW9-M2-022

Prompt:

A student is revising the following sentence.

The community translation project turns city notices into several languages, and volunteers distribute the notices at neighborhood centers.

The student wants to emphasize that the project both improves access to information and reaches residents where they already gather. Which choice best revises the sentence to accomplish this goal?

- A) By translating city notices into several languages and distributing them at neighborhood centers, the community project makes information more accessible where residents already gather.
- B) The community translation project uses several languages, and city notices can be written in language.
- C) Volunteers distribute notices at neighborhood centers, and some notices are from the city.
- D) Neighborhood centers are places where residents gather, and volunteers can go there with notices.

RW9-M2-023

Prompt:

On the last day before the bakery closed, Imani bought one small loaf of rye bread. She had passed the bakery every morning for years, usually too rushed to stop. At home, the bread's familiar caraway smell filled the kitchen, and Imani realized that a place she had barely entered had still been part of her daily life.

Question:

Which choice best describes what the text suggests about Imani?

- A) She recognizes the bakery's quiet importance only as it is disappearing.
- B) She has spent years working as a baker in the shop.
- C) She dislikes the smell of rye bread in her kitchen.
- D) She decides that the bakery should stop selling bread immediately.

RW9-M2-024

Prompt:

The coach divided the runners into smaller pace groups, _____ each athlete a more suitable training plan.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) giving
- B) gave
- C) gives
- D) and giving

RW9-M2-025

Prompt:

Because several plant species in the field guide look similar, the botanist used leaf shape and flower color to _____ them.

Question:

Which choice completes the text with the most logical and precise word?

- A) distinguish
- B) decorate

- C) postpone
- D) imitate

RW9-M2-026

Prompt:

The club's event plan includes three tasks for volunteers: welcoming guests, checking registration forms, and _____.

Question:

Which choice completes the text so that it conforms to the conventions of Standard English?

- A) directing people to open seats
- B) people were directed to open seats
- C) to direct people to open seats
- D) directed people to open seats

RW9-M2-027

Prompt:

While researching a topic, a student has taken the following notes:

- Native hedgerows are rows of shrubs and small trees planted along field edges.
- Hedgerows can provide nesting sites for birds.
- They can also offer flowers for pollinators.
- Their roots may help reduce soil erosion.
- Some farmers plant hedgerows to support biodiversity.

The student wants to emphasize how native hedgerows can support biodiversity. Which choice most effectively uses relevant information from the notes?

- A) Native hedgerows can support biodiversity by providing nesting sites for birds and flowers for pollinators.
- B) Hedgerows are rows of shrubs and small trees that may be planted along field edges.
- C) Some farmers plant hedgerows, while other farmers use different field-edge practices.
- D) Soil erosion can occur when wind or water carries soil away from a field.

PART C — MODULE 1 ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

RW9-M1-001 — Correct: distinctive — Explanation: Thomas's use of bright color blocks and rhythmic patterns made her style recognizable and different from exact representation.

RW9-M1-002 — Correct: Windbreaks can protect fields from wind while also supporting some wildlife. — Explanation: The passage explains that windbreaks slow damaging winds and can shelter birds and beneficial insects.

RW9-M1-003 — Correct: was — Explanation: The singular subject "bundle" requires the singular verb "was."

RW9-M1-004 — Correct: Room D collected the greatest amount of paper. — Explanation: Room D collected 26 pounds, more than the other classrooms.

RW9-M1-005 — Correct: Mara learns that quiet parts can be important to a musical performance. — Explanation: Mara first wants to play loudly but then realizes softer passages help build the music's power.

RW9-M1-006 — Correct: It explains a practical benefit of early bicycle paths. — Explanation: The quoted sentence explains that bicycle paths helped riders travel safely over rough or muddy roads.

RW9-M1-007 — Correct: However, — Explanation: The second sentence contrasts the handbook's clear attendance rules with sections that still need detail.

RW9-M1-008 — Correct: a — Explanation: "Mammal" begins with a consonant sound, so "a" is correct.

RW9-M1-009 — Correct: they — Explanation: The subject pronoun “they” correctly refers to the science team as the group answering questions.

RW9-M1-010 — Correct: Tu Youyou’s work helped develop artemisinin, a malaria treatment that has helped save many lives. — Explanation: This choice explains the significance of Tu’s scientific work by connecting it to an important malaria treatment.

RW9-M1-011 — Correct: As a result, — Explanation: Students’ safer route to the park is presented as an effect of opening the pedestrian bridge.

RW9-M1-012 — Correct: where it is now. — Explanation: Sentence 4 logically gives an example of how archived materials can show school changes over time.

RW9-M1-013 — Correct: planted — Explanation: “Yesterday afternoon” requires the past-tense verb “planted.”

RW9-M1-014 — Correct: Carved — Explanation: “Carved by a local carpenter” correctly modifies “the wooden sign.”

RW9-M1-015 — Correct: gym because the main — Explanation: “Because” correctly introduces the reason the game was moved.

RW9-M1-016 — Correct: assess — Explanation: The librarian used checkout data to evaluate which displays encouraged more borrowing.

RW9-M1-017 — Correct: Shared tool sheds can help residents access useful equipment without purchasing it. — Explanation: The passage explains that shared sheds let residents borrow tools they may rarely use.

RW9-M1-018 — Correct: They help the hares move across deep snow without sinking as easily. — Explanation: The text says the feet spread the hare’s weight over a wider area, reducing sinking.

RW9-M1-019 — Correct: The school opened a peer writing center where students can brainstorm ideas, organize essays, or review drafts. — Explanation: This choice combines the ideas clearly and avoids a comma splice.

RW9-M1-020 — Correct: Gordon Parks, a photographer and photojournalist, created images that documented poverty, segregation, and everyday life. — Explanation: This choice introduces Parks and identifies the focus of his photography.

RW9-M1-021 — Correct: Dev watered the greatest number of seedlings. — Explanation: Dev watered 41 seedlings, more than Ana, Mia, or Noah.

RW9-M1-022 — Correct: To give examples of tasks students completed to create announcements — Explanation: The sentence lists tasks involved in making announcements.

RW9-M1-023 — Correct: that — Explanation: “That” correctly introduces the clause identifying which painting was donated.

RW9-M1-024 — Correct: to suggest — Explanation: The phrase completes the parallel structure: “to observe,” “to record,” and “to suggest.”

RW9-M1-025 — Correct: understandable — Explanation: Adding a legend would make the map symbols easier to understand.

RW9-M1-026 — Correct: Career exploration programs can help students learn about different jobs and connect their interests to future goals. — Explanation: This sentence clearly introduces the essay’s focus on the value of career exploration.

RW9-M1-027 — Correct: Consequently, — Explanation: Cyclists’ safer and more convenient parking is presented as an effect of adding bike racks.

PART D — MODULE 2 ANSWER KEY + EXPLANATIONS

RW9-M2-001 — Correct: complicates — Explanation: Erdrich’s use of multiple voices shows that the past cannot be fully explained through a single perspective.

RW9-M2-002 — Correct: Ancient shells can preserve chemical evidence that helps scientists study past ocean environments. — Explanation: The passage explains that shell chemistry can reflect past water temperature and chemistry.

RW9-M2-003 — Correct: Flexible seating can support classroom work, but it requires clear guidelines. — Explanation: The text says flexible seating can suit different tasks but needs expectations to prevent distraction.

RW9-M2-004 — Correct: It explains why Tharp’s mapping work was important to ocean research. — Explanation: The second sentence explains that Tharp’s maps made large-scale seafloor features visible to researchers.

RW9-M2-005 — Correct: Students spent more time using the assignment calendar, discussion board, and resource library after the update, but less time using the grade tracker. — Explanation: Usage increased for three features and decreased for the grade tracker from 30 to 27 minutes.

RW9-M2-006 — Correct: However, — Explanation: The sentence contrasts the benefits of a community garden with a possible problem if tasks are not shared.

RW9-M2-007 — Correct: use: — Explanation: A colon correctly introduces the list of three strategies.

RW9-M2-008 — Correct: the student noticed that several letters were missing — Explanation: The introductory modifier “Reading the inscription” must logically describe “the student.”

RW9-M2-009 — Correct: the journalist — Explanation: Repeating “the journalist” avoids ambiguity about whether “they” refers to the journalist and photographer together.

RW9-M2-010 — Correct: had arranged — Explanation: The past perfect tense shows that the volunteers arranged the tables before the doors opened.

RW9-M2-011 — Correct: Ruth Asawa’s looped-wire sculptures often appear light and transparent and can cast complex shadows when suspended. — Explanation: This choice explains a distinctive feature of Asawa’s sculptures.

RW9-M2-012 — Correct: Refillable marker systems can reduce plastic waste because empty markers can be filled again instead of thrown away. — Explanation: This sentence directly explains a possible advantage of refillable markers.

RW9-M2-013 — Correct: After sentence 1 — Explanation: The added sentence defines the size of microplastics immediately after the term is introduced.

RW9-M2-014 — Correct: one-sided — Explanation: The historian included several different perspectives, so the account was not one-sided.

RW9-M2-015 — Correct: The higher number of insect species in plots with mixed native plants supports the conclusion that plant diversity may support insect diversity. — Explanation: The evidence links greater plant variety with more insect species.

RW9-M2-016 — Correct: schedule, and — Explanation: A comma plus “and” correctly joins two independent clauses.

RW9-M2-017 — Correct: Under the conditions tested, Material A was less slippery when wet than Material B. — Explanation: Material A had higher friction under the same wet conditions, meaning it was less slippery.

RW9-M2-018 — Correct: Then, — Explanation: The paragraph moves from a general explanation of temporary parks to a specific neighborhood example.

RW9-M2-019 — Correct: includes — Explanation: The singular subject “collection” requires the singular verb “includes.”

RW9-M2-020 — Correct: robin’s — Explanation: The sentence refers to one robin’s nest, so the singular possessive “robin’s” is correct.

RW9-M2-021 — Correct: The Freedmen’s Bureau, established after the Civil War, helped establish schools, supported labor contracts, and provided some food and medical aid. — Explanation: This choice explains several kinds of assistance the Bureau provided.

RW9-M2-022 — Correct: By translating city notices into several languages and distributing them at neighborhood centers, the community project makes information more accessible where residents already gather. — Explanation: This revision emphasizes both language access and distribution in familiar community locations.

RW9-M2-023 — Correct: She recognizes the bakery’s quiet importance only as it is disappearing.
— Explanation: Imani realizes that the bakery was part of her daily life only when it is closing.

RW9-M2-024 — Correct: giving — Explanation: The participle “giving” correctly shows the result of dividing the runners into pace groups.

RW9-M2-025 — Correct: distinguish — Explanation: Leaf shape and flower color help the botanist tell similar plant species apart.

RW9-M2-026 — Correct: directing people to open seats — Explanation: This choice keeps the list grammatically parallel: “welcoming,” “checking,” and “directing.”

RW9-M2-027 — Correct: Native hedgerows can support biodiversity by providing nesting sites for birds and flowers for pollinators. — Explanation: This choice emphasizes two ways hedgerows support biodiversity.